

Serviced Office Space UK

9 Marchburn Drive

Paisley PA3 2SJ

This business centre is conveniently located in one of the best locations placing tenants on the global and continental flight paths and at the hub of a modern, integrated transport network covering bus, car and train systems. Ample parking is also available for convenience. Since it is a quick and easy commute to Glasgow City Centre, tenants can also benefit from a central urban city at a fraction of the monthly costs and fewer traffic and parking issues. The centre provides a variety of local amenities right on the doorstep, including bars, restaurants, cafes, and fast-food options.

With a prime location next to Glasgow International Airport, this location offers modern and spacious office suites on flexible terms. This recently refurbished Grade A centre provides an excellent platform for any business to flourish with its cost-effective workplace solutions. The 41 flexible office suites are designed to accommodate from 2 to 40 people. The centre is accessible 24 hours a day so clients can work flexibly. Facilities like furnished offices, high-speed internet, parking space, meeting space, private telephone booths, mail collection, and a staffed reception are also available. This centre is a great space i.e., designed to meet the demands of any modern business.
