

Serviced Office Space UK

8 Mansfield Road

Nottingham NG16 3AQ

This space is in Eastwood, Nottingham, the birthplace of the famous writer D.H. Lawrence and just minutes from the M1, with Nottingham and Derby, approximately 12 miles either way. This space is conveniently positioned just off the high street close to cafes, shops and bars, but with easy access to parking with a choice of free or paid parking. Langley Mill Station can be reached in just five minutes by car. Bus services are available at the Derby Road bus stop. Fantastic transport links are available due to the central location of this space.

This location offers secure, professional, spacious offices to rent with like-minded, friendly, professional people. Whether just starting up a new business, wanting to move from the dining room table or home office, or just looking for a bit more space, this flexible location is the ideal solution. The offices available have 24/7 access, all-inclusive rent, no hidden extras, and no maintenance charges. This space also has small and large meeting rooms for staff or client meetings and fully equipped kitchens with cutlery, crockery and coffee machines. This space is warm and welcoming, so clients can feel at home while at work.
