11 Cursitor Street

London EC4A 1LL

Located in the bustling heart of London's midtown area, this workspace offers unparalleled access to all parts of the city. The area is home to an array of international cuisine and retail options, with Leather Lane Market and High Holborn nearby. For seeking a respite from the hustle and bustle of urban life, Lincoln's Inn Fields provides a tranquil oasis just a few minutes walk away. With four stations within a 10-minute radius, including the Central, Piccadilly, Metropolitan, Circle, and Hammersmith and City tube lines, as well as the Elizabeth Line and National Rail, this building is perfectly situated for easy access to all of London's central destinations.

This beautiful and sophisticated building with a new interior sits behind a Victorian facade with the inclusion of showers and bike storage, it is evident that the designers had the modern employee in mind. The corner aspect floor ensures that there's enough natural light to keep everyone energized throughout the day. The open plan design is not only attractive, but it also promotes collaboration among team members. Additionally, there are meeting rooms, a self-contained office, and breakout areas that are thoughtfully incorporated into the floor layout. Whether it is brainstorming or simply grabbing a quick coffee, this building has got it all. It is the perfect environment to bring a team together and achieve their objectives.
