

Serviced Office Space UK

6 South Bar Street

Banbury OX16 9AA

Located 100m from the famous Banbury Cross, only five minutes' walk from the new shopping centre. The area is predominantly office use, full of other businesses with which you can network and establish a prestigious presence. Within walking distance, you can reach lots of restaurants, shops and other mundane services. Just ten minutes away, there is a park where you can relax and enjoy your well deserved breaks. There is also a cinema just down the road, as well as several hotels in which your clients and guests can stay.

This traditional Victorian building has a variety of smaller offices available, for up to three people. Tenants are provided with a full range of technical resources, including fully equipped offices, meeting and conference rooms, instant occupancy with minimum start-up costs, simple, flexible agreements and 24-hour security and access. It has a comfortable working atmosphere that benefits from an abundance of natural light that will enhance your focus and motivation. In addition, there is administrative support to provide efficient support with your day-to-day tasks. You will also benefit from a fantastic location.
