

Serviced Office Space UK

16 Oakfield Road

Bristol BS8 2AP

This workspace is Bristol's exciting new development centre in the hustle and bustle of city life right outside the window and a vibrant atmosphere that will inspire creativity and success. This workspace provides an ideal base to access all of Bristol's best hotspots. Enjoy a range of fabulous restaurants and cafés just moments away, or experience the town's buzzing nightlife. The office space is all nearby. Not just that, but with transport links, getting around town or further afield is made easy for members.

This centre is a unique business destination where members can do the most of the work and network with business-minded professionals. The space provides amenities with everything that anyone needs to stay productive and successful. Members can start the day with tea and coffee before heading off to enjoy exclusive access to a superfast broadband connection and telephone booth. With convenient, bookable meeting and event spaces, clients have all the tools to collaborate successfully with colleagues or host presentations without the fuss. After hours of hard work, there's no better place than break-out lounges and an open garden area to relax. For added convenience, the space also ventures into sustainable networking and provides bike storage plus shower facilities for those who wish to exercise during lunch.
