64 Knightsbridge

London SW1X 7JX

This centre is located in Knightsbridge, directly opposite Harvey Nichols. One of London's most prestigious shopping areas is populated by high fashion and accessory stores. Knightsbridge underground station is adjacent, while Hyde Park is a short walk away. On the ground floor, you will find a decadent restaurant and bar with food by Tom Kerridge and cocktails made in house. Ideal for a space to work and entertain guests. The library lounge has lots of room to work and meet. On the 3rd floor is a large roof terrace overlooking Hyde Park.

This is a grand, prominent building that has been overhauled to provide very high quality, prestigious offices that are stylishly furnished and decorated with original artwork. Business facilities are exceptionally well equipped, offering the latest telephony systems, fax and digital copying. Access to the building and full reception services are available 24-hours a day, seven days a week.
