15a Clerkenwell Close

London EC1R 0AA

The office is situated in the very heart of London, surrounded by hurly-burly markets and an area mainly filled with narrow streets and cobbled roads, with many parks nearby. Home to many of the city's creative and design industries, including Hatton garden and Exmouth market, with countless outstanding restaurants and food markets nearby. The office is situated near Interior, with easy and accessible transport links. The underground stations accessible are Farringdon, Chancery Lane, and Barbican.

The aesthetic of the building has been designed by the architectural practises over a considerable amount of time. It offers substantial creative office space at ground and lower ground floor levels that currently houses an architectural practice, a furniture retailer, and an urban design charity. The available office space accommodates an eight-person desk and has access to several meeting areas, including the floating glass meeting room. A kitchen with a professional coffee machine is also being offered, and access to a beautiful garden. The rent includes the bills (utility, business rates, tea, coffee, biscuits, fruit, cleaning and much more). The Office has been crafted with love and utmost care. Do pay a visit!
