

Serviced Office Space UK

Navigation Way

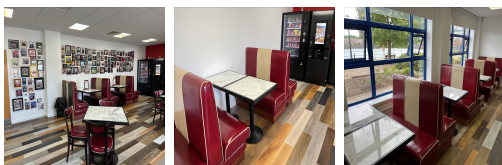

Preston (Lancashire) PR2 2YF

Looking for a prime location for the business? Look no further than this workspace. This space is situated in the heart of the city, surrounded by shops, restaurants, gyms, fast food outlets and a cinema. The business centre is just off the Guild Wheel and there is a selection of hotels nearby. With easy access to the M6/M61/M65 and M55, the office is just a short distance from Preston City Centre, Preston railway station and Preston bus station. So whether looking for convenient access to transport links or a busy, vibrant atmosphere for business, this centre is a perfect choice.

This business centre is the perfect place for work and leisure. The dedicated event manager will take care of all the details so that members can focus on their presentations. Free parking and free tea, coffee and water are included for all the members. Wireless internet is also available throughout the centre. Projectors and screens are available for presentations, and catering can be arranged to make the event complete. Moreover, break-out rooms are also available for smaller group meetings and large meeting rooms are available for some professional meetings. Copier services are also available on-site.
