Bristol BS1 6QH

Looking for a workspace that is both conveniently located and easily accessible? Look no further than this location. Situated right next to Bristol Temple Meads train station, the workspace links local, national, and international transport, making this the perfect base for the business. Whether members need to commute to meetings or travel to clients, this location is ideal for those with busy schedules. And with excellent transport links like train stations and airports nearby, getting around is easy and stress-free.

This vibrant and collaborative working space is perfect for informal meetings and with a high-quality café. This space welcomes a diverse network of academics, entrepreneurs, innovators, business leaders, and professionals to discover common interests, connections, and projects. The catering partner can provide various options for the meetings and events, from breakfast pastries to buffet lunches, evening canapés, and a range of drinks. The menu gives full details of what is on offer. In addition, this workspace is the perfect place to meet new people, make connections, and get work done.
