

Serviced Office Space UK

155-157 Minories

London EC3N 1LJ

The office space offers businesses a city base, close to the financial district but only a minute's walk from Brick Lane. Easy to reach from all over London as well as great for commuters, the office building is next to Aldgate tube station, with Liverpool Street and Fenchurch Street train stations just moments away, as well as connections to the DLR. There's also an underground bicycle store if members are coming on cycles. A perfect place to soak up the very best of what London has to offer, from Brick Lane's fabulous to Rough Trade East, a roomy record store which hosts regular talks and gigs with the best bands around.

The workplace is unparalleled in its beauty and available amenities, with high-speed internet, elegant design features from its 1928 construction, 24-hour access and air conditioning. It has transformed from a high office building to a hub for traditional as well as technology firms. For the members of the workspace, there are also high-end services such as an onsite reception with professional staff and mailroom services which makes conducting business efficient and budget-friendly. Moreover, the clients coming in contact with the office spaces can rest assured knowing that strict safety protocols adhere to both inside and outside of the buildings.
