

Serviced Office Space UK

Stafford ST16 1WQ

Situated in the heart of Stafford, this centre is easily accessible for those travelling by train, or bus. Famed for its bustling shops, restaurants and cafes, the area is a popular destination for anyone wanting to immerse themselves in a vibrant community. Close to the A34 Stone Road and only 2 minutes from M6 Junction 14, getting to the centre is an effortless task. Additionally, there are convenient alternatives with a bus stop scarcely 100 yards away and Town Centre just 5 minutes away by car. Therefore when the members want to escape the hustle and bustle of everyday life and unwind in one of the many nearby eateries or lounges, it will hardly take any time at all.

This dedicated business centre provides affordable and flexible office space for every size of the company. Offices are available for just one person through to full office suites. This centre recognises that long leases are an outdated concept and here the office spaces can be taken on short-term leases with minimum notice periods, allowing anyone to expand the space gradually. The business centre offices are modern, and bright with a great community feel. The team are on hand to help the members make the transition into the new office space as smooth as possible to keep disruption to the business to a minimum. Along with many amenities, this centre also provides 24-Hour access so that the members work flexibly.
