

Serviced Office Space UK

56 Oxford Street

Manchester M1 6EU

This centre is perfect for business travellers and entrepreneurs alike, due to the unbeatable location near various modes of transportation. With just a 2-minute walk from Manchester Oxford Road Station and 11 minutes from Manchester Piccadilly station, this has never been easier to travel via train. Not to mention, the main bus and tram stations are located just a short walk away for those who need more options. Lastly, for international travel, this is just 21 minutes from Manchester City Airport – making this centre an ideal spot for anyone looking for an easy commute.

The centre is designed to ensure maximum productivity as this features bright and airy rooms filled with natural light, offering more desk space than other providers. The soundproofing ensures that nobody will be listening or looking over the shoulder while working. Members will also have access to unlimited barista-style coffee, high-speed WIFI, essential IT equipment and a supportive customer service team. But that's not all - this workspace also provides a wide variety of excellent facilities for the users, including brand-new shower and changing facilities, an on-site café, bike racks and an open-air courtyard. With this center as the workspace, members can propel the business forward into a success.
